MONDAY EVENING, AUG. 20, 1906.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 5:17 a. m. and sets at 6:49 p. m. High water at 8:10 a. m. and 8:30 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section unsettled weather tonight and Sunday; fresh easterly winds.

Ready to Answer Charge.

Preston Withers, colored, entered the station house last night and approaching Lieutenant Smith asked information concerning a warrant which had been issued for his arrest. The lieutenant looked over the record and found that a warrant was issued for Withers' arrest on May 27, 1905, for assaulting Lizzie Drayton. Withers stated that he had left the city after the assault and proceeded to Boston. He asked the lieutenant the amount of collateral he should leave for his appearance this morning, and taking a large roll of bills from his pocket deposited the required amount. Withers then asked if there were any other charges against him and when informed that there were not he left the station house. The case was called this morning in the Police Court, but in the absence of witnesses was continued.

Potomac Baptist Association.

The Potomac Baptist Association at its meeting in Waterford, Loudoun county, last week decided to meet the Wednesday after the second Sunday in August, 1907, at Marshall, Fauquier county. The committee on the state of the churches reported through the chairman, Mr. J. R. Mansfield, of Alexandria, showing that all of the churches reported by letter or delegate except six, and that contributions for the past year had only slightly increased and that the total number of members in the fifty-five churches at present is 5,834. The matter of temperance reform was discussed. The progress made in the work of closing so many of the saloons throughout the State, particularly in Alexandria county, was favorably commented upon. The work of the Anti-Saloon League was heartily commended.

Death on a Steamer.

The body of a man supposed to be E. Alexander, of Washington, was found on board the steamer Washington, of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, yesterday morning about two hours after the steamer reached Washington. The only clue as to the man's identity was a receipt in his pocket from a Washington tailoring establishment to E. Alexander. He was about 40 years of age. The body was removed to the morgue and an effort is being made to locate his relatives or friends. It was subsequently learned that Alexander was an attendant at the Government Hospital for the Insane.

Large Crop of Weeds.

The city has for some time past been employing a corps of boys to pull grass from the streets, and they have made perceptible progress in their work. The recent copious rains and hot waves have produced large crops of weeds which should be cut down and carried away as soon as possible. Should they be allowed to stand their noxious growth will wither and, it is believed, cause sickness. Many persons in this city are now suffering from fever, and every exertion should be made to eliminate anything likely to cause sickness.

Police Court.

There were 25 persons, white and colored, before the Police Court this morning. Most of the accused were charged with misdemeanors and the cases were properly disposed of. Chas. Jones, colored, who had been arrested by Lieut. Smith and Officers Bell and Henderson charged with stealing $250 from A. D. Rowan, had his case continued. Lee Drowns had been arrested by Officers Bettis and Nicholson on suspicion of stealing hats from a Southern Railway car. His case was also continued.

Elephants for Luna Park.

Several elephants, consigned to Luna Park, reached this city about 8:30 o'clock last night via the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. They were brought across the river from Shepherd's on the transfer barge, and were later led to the park. It was supposed that the elephants would arrive some time yesterday, and many of the younger generation were on the lookout for them.

The managers of the park in their advertisement today announce new features at that popular resort.

Men-of-war in the River.

The monitors Florida and Arkansas and the cruiser Newark, with Annapolis midshipmen aboard, which passed in the Virginia capes Friday from New London, are in the Potomac river with the cruisers Cleveland, Denver and Des Moines. The midshipmen are to be given opportunity of visiting the proving grounds at Indian Head before returning to Annapolis.

Apoplectic Stroke?

It is feared that Rev. J. G. Council, the aged pastor of the Baptist Church at Del Ray, Alexandria county, who was injured by a fall at St. Asaph station Saturday morning, is in a serious condition. It was at first thought that he had suffered from an attack of vertigo, but it is now thought that he was stricken with apoplexy.

On the Route Again.

As was anticipated, the repairs to the ferry steamer Woodbury were completed Saturday night and the boat resumed her place on the route early yesterday morning. The Woodbury and Callahan transported the usual large number of Sunday passengers. The boats are now run on a half-hour schedule as heretofore.

Funeral.

Funeral services over the remains of Edward Coggeshall Spofford, whose death took place at his residence in West End, Fairfax county, Friday morning, were held at his late residence this afternoon. The interment, which was private, was in Arlington cemetery.

Another Hot Sunday.

The weather yesterday was a continuation of the sultry conditions that have prevailed during the present month. The day was quiet, and during the afternoon, when the heat was most oppressive, comparatively few people were on the streets.

Decline in Martial Spirit.

The Alexandria Light Infantry went out on Thursday for their annual encampment, marching through the streets of the city with less than forty men. This leads the Alexandria Gazette to remark on the decline of the patriotic, or at least the martial, spirit. This company, with their ranks, is the only military organization in the city at the present time, whereas in 1860, just before the breaking out of the civil war, a majority of the able-bodied men and youths of the city were soldiers. There were five infantry companies, one artillery, and one cavalry, each company having full ranks. One of these companies, "The Alexandria Riflemen," commanded by Capt. Morton Mayne, was the first military company to arrive at Harper's Ferry on the occasion of the John Brown raid in November, 1859; and was one of the two companies sent by Longstreet, under command of Captain Mayne, across Bull Run, at Blackburn's Ford, on the 18th of July, 1861, to capture the battery of artillery thrown forward by McDowell on his advance to First Manassas, which occurred three days later. All of these Alexandria companies took an active part in the Confederate war; but the artillery company commanded by the Kemper, first by Delaware and on his promotion by Kosciusko, gained great distinction.—(Charlottesville Progress).

Work of Vandals.

The residence of Mr. E. H. Kemper, on the west side of Fairfax street, was entered during the past few days and the interior of the house and contents damaged considerably. A china closet was demolished, a large mantle mirror smashed, a sideboard defaced, paper pulled from the walls and holes made in the plastering. So far as known nothing was taken from the house, but there seems to have been a determination on the part of the vandals to cause as much damage as possible. It is supposed that the miscreants were in possession of keys to the house. Mr. Kemper and his family have been out of the city for several weeks.

Trouble with the Current.

The running of electric trains was brought to a standstill about noon today. All electric fans in the city ceased running at the same time. The trouble is said to have originated in the power house at Four-mile run. Later the current was turned on, when the running of trains was resumed.

Charged with Assault.

Officers Roberts and Lyles today arrested "Doc" Brown, on complaint of Georgianna Nelson, who charges him with assault. According to the complainant, Brown assaulted the woman with a knife. The case will come before the Police Court tomorrow morning.

Accident to an Engine.

The rod on the right side of the loco motive attached to a westbound train on the Manassas branch of the Southern Railway became detached in the neighborhood of Wellington last Friday evening and tore off the side of the cab, injuring Mr. Thomas Rowen, the engineer.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Charlie, son of Mrs. Maggie and the late Louis Magruder, died at his home in Washington last night.

The Old Dominion Baseball Club, of this city, will not play the champion colored team of Virginia, as there is some misunderstanding between the players.

Frightfully Burned.

Chas. W. Moore, a machinist, of Ford City, Pa., had his hand frightfully burned in an electrical furnace. He applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve with the usual result: "a quick and perfect cure." Greatest healer on earth for Burns, Wounds, Sores, Eczema and Piles. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater and Sons, Druggists.

The Senate Before the War.

J. G. Blaine's Twenty Years in Congress contains the following: "With one-half the Senate under the control of the slave-holding States and with the constitution declaring that no amendment to it should ever destroy the equality of the States in the Senate, the southern leaders occupied a commanding position. Those leaders constituted a remarkable body of men. Having before them the example of Jefferson, of Madison and of George Mason in Virginia, of Nathaniel Macon in North Carolina, and of the Pinckneys and Rutledges in South Carolina, they gave deep study to the science of government. They were admirably trained as debaters and they became highly skilled in the management of parliamentary bodies. As a rule, they were liberally educated, many of them graduates of northern colleges, a still larger number taking their degrees at Transylvania, in Kentucky, at Chapel Hill, in North Carolina, and at Mr. Jefferson's peculiar but admirable institution in Virginia. The secluded mode of life on the plantation gave them the leisure for reading and reflection. They took pride in their libraries, pursued the law so far as it increased their equipment for a public career and devoted themselves to political affairs with an absorbing ambition. Their domestic relations in many instances were happy and harmonious and sometimes offensive; they were quick to take affront, and they not infrequently brought needless personal disputes into the discussion of public questions; but they were almost without exception men of high integrity, and they were especially and jealously careful of the public money. Too often ruinously lavish in their personal expenditures, they believed in an economical government, and throughout the long period of their domination they guarded the Treasury with rigid and unceasing vigilance against every attempt at extravagance and against every form of corruption."

Bulgarians Demand Reprisal.

A meeting of 20,000 inhabitants of Philippopolis, Bulgaria, and surrounding districts, which also was attended by 1,900 delegates from Macedonia associations in all parts of Bulgaria, yesterday adopted resolutions protesting against Greek outrages and urging the government and the nation to use all means to secure a strict enforcement of article 23 of the treaty of Berlin; to break off diplomatic negotiations with Greece; to meet the Greek outrages with all the reprisals permitted by international law; and to affirm the inadequacy of the Muezzin programme, which provides for the maintenance of the status quo in the Balkans. The meeting further recorded an expression of regret for the acts of intolerance by certain Bulgarians on Greek provocation. The meeting was quite orderly, and at its conclusion those present formed into an imposing procession and left copies of the resolutions at the Russian, French and British consulates.

Must Have License.

Social clubs of Columbia and throughout South Carolina will have to take out a retail license if they are to keep liquors in the lockers. Following an investigation at Columbia by the Revenue Bureau at Washington, it has been decided by the Treasury Department that the clubs must pay the $25 tax, and accordingly the officers of a number of them in the State have been notified. The others will be notified as soon as they can be reached. The department has made a test of the matter in the courts, and in other States, it is said, the same rule will apply where conditions are the same. An opinion was asked regarding clubs chartered or incorporated, and it was decided that they were also liable for this tax. When the department investigated the laws of South Carolina it was decided that all clubs where alcoholic liquors were dispensed were liable for the tax.

Killed the Wrong Man.

R. E. Wishart, of Ocala, Fla., was killed at San Antonio, Pasco county, yesterday morning by a turpentine dealer named Burton. Wishart operated a tie camp at Ehren, and with his two daughters went to San Antonio to have dental work done for one. While the young lady was in the dentist's chair, and Wishart was waiting in the office, Burton, who had a grievance against the dentist, whose name is Nichols, came to the door and asked if Nichols was in. Wishart replied that he was, and Burton, thinking it was Nichols who spoke, fired a load from a shotgun into Wishart's heart, killing him instantly. As Burton fired he called out: "Nichols, you have ruined my wife." Wishart went to Florida from Lumberton, S. C., eight years ago and owned considerable property on the west coast.

Suicide of a Woman.

After three days of a carnival at the McDonald Fair with her former sweetheart, Charles Sechler, Mrs. Jennie Anderson, wife of John Anderson, a wealthy farmer living near Pittsburg, Pa., said for her fun with her life yesterday. Rat e than face her husband, Mrs. Anderson, after she had bidden Sechler good by, sent a bullet into her breast just as they reached the gate leading to her home. She was trying to send a bullet into her brain when Sechler wrestled the revolver from her hands. The woman pleaded to be allowed to finish her work, declaring that she had had her fun and was willing to pay for it.

Sechler, almost paralyzed with terror, hurried to the house, where he notified the husband. The latter ordered him from the house and refused to go to his wife's assistance. Sechler drove to Imperial in search of a doctor.

For four hours, it is alleged, the body of the woman lay in the broiling sun. When a physician arrived the woman was dead. The physician believes that she had been dead about two hours when he reached her. The husband still refused to have anything to do with the case and the body was taken to the home of a neighbor.

Killed by his Horse.

Rev. Thomas Wood, senior pastor of the Great Falls circuit of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Baltimore county, Md., was killed yesterday by his horse while he was trying to take a stone from the animal's hoof. Rev. Mr. Wood, who was sixty-five years old, was on his way to one of his churches when an automobile passed his carriage. The horse became frightened at the machine and ran onto the car track paralleling the road. In doing so, the horse got a stone in his foot; and the minister got out of the carriage and attempted to extract it. The animal, still nervous from the automobile, suddenly backed and then leaped forward, trampling the minister, breaking three of his ribs and causing internal injuries from which he died.

Cure for Neuralgia.

A simple method of curing facial neuralgia is given in the Indian Review. If the neuralgia is in the right side of the face the left hand should be placed in a basin of water as hot as can be borne. Or if neuralgia is in the left side of the face then the right hand should be placed in the hot water. It is asserted that in this way relief may be obtained in less than five minutes. The explanation is that the two nerves which have the greatest number of tactile nerve endings are the fifth and the median nerve. As the fibres of these two nerves cross any impulse conveyed to the left hand will affect the right side of the face, or if applied to the right hand will affect the left side of the face. This on account of the crossing the cords.

Attempt to Assassinate Governor General
The Warsaw revolutionists who on Saturday attempted to assassinate the governor general adopted a strategem to induce him to leave the palace. A few days ago a revolutionist, disguised as an officer, appeared at the German consulate, quarreled with the vice-consul and boxed his ears. Owing to this incident the governor general was compelled to visit the vice-consul and offer an apology. Meanwhile the revolutionists had rented a flat near the vice-consul's residence and when the governor general's carriage appeared they threw bombs at it. The police having been informed that a light-haired girl threw the bomb, arrested all the light-haired girls in the neighborhood.

Cape-to-Cairo.

The Cape-to-Cairo railway recently reached the Broken Hill copper mine, 374 miles north of Zambesi, building being at a rate of a mile a day. The terminus in June last was 2,016 miles north of Cape Town. Seven bridges were recently built, the one over the Kafue river being 1,200 feet long. A branch of the railway is to be built into Katanga, a province of the Congo State, to reach the gold and copper of that region. An English expedition, under Major Cotton, is now traversing the route via the Nile to the Zambesi. Mrs. Cotton is the first white woman seen by the pygmies, who admire her "long, straight hair," their own being somewhat frizzled.
